DATA PROTECTION FORM

Data Protection Declaration

All information retained by the Stamford Civic Society will be held in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) 2018 which comes/came into force on 25 May 2018. Personal data will be used for a variety of purposes that the Stamford Civic Society considers to be of benefit to members. We will hold the information you have supplied on a computerized database so that we can easily contact you with details of Civic Society activities and also to enable us to manage your membership. You can be assured that sensitive personal data will be held securely and will not be disclosed to any third party without your specific consent. This data will only be held for such time as you are a member of the Stamford Civic Society.

Action

The GDPR means that we will not be able to send our members certain direct communications unless they have given us specific permission to communicate with them using whatever method by positively opting in. To give your permission: Please complete and sign this form and return it to the Secretary at the address below.

The GDPR does not affect membership communications of which you were aware when you joined the Civic Society (such as the bimonthly Newsletter and the Annual Review) or any renewal communications. However, it is important that you let us have your written permission to communicate with you in order that we can send other information relevant to membership. You may change the information given on this form at any time.

 If you do not give permission for us to communicate with you by email, you will not receive the full range of updates from the Society.
